Dear Emmanuel Mutuku,

Oxford Brookes University BSc (Hons) in Applied Accounting

Following the decision of the Oxford Brookes University BSc (Hons) in Applied Accounting Examination Board held on 21 March 2022, I am pleased to inform you that your Research Project has achieved C grade and you have subsequently been awarded the BSc (Hons) in Applied Accounting degree with

LOWER SECOND CLASS HONOURS

Certificates

Certificates are sent out by Oxford Brookes University's Taught Programmes Team and not by the ACCA office. You should receive your certificate by post within the next five months. If you have not received your certificate by the 15 August 2022, please contact the Taught Programmes Team quoting your full name, address and ACCA number at certificates@brookes.ac.uk. Should you change your address prior to receiving your certificate, please inform both certificates@brookes.ac.uk and the ACCA Office on acca@brookes.ac.uk to ensure all future correspondence is sent to the correct destination.

Graduation

Your award of the BSc (Hons) in Applied Accounting degree is effective from the date of the University's BSc Examination Board i.e. 21 March 2022. You do not have to attend an Oxford Brookes Graduation Ceremony as a condition of being awarded the BSc degree but all BSc graduates will be given the opportunity to attend such an event. As a consequence of the pandemic, our usual programme of ceremonies continues to be disrupted. You will be contacted with further information on how to register for a ceremony, as soon as we are able to confirm arrangements. Until then, please do not contact us about graduations as we will not be able to provide any further information.

References

I regret that it is not possible for Oxford Brookes to provide a full academic reference to a BSc graduate in support of an application for postgraduate study due to the structure of the BSc degree programme. However, the University can confirm to a third party that you have been awarded the BSc degree with your class of Honours.

Sharing your project

Following your success, I do ask that graduates do not share their successful project with other students to avoid the risk of potential plagiarism. The University has a strict policy on this and any student sharing their project could be subject to disciplinary action.
