Your results and next steps.

I have passed, when can I expect my certificate?

Congratulations! As soon as you have achieved the required credits for each qualification level your certificate will be sent to you by post. This will be sent approximately six weeks after the results release date.

I have completed the Level 4 Diploma, Level 5 Advanced Diploma and Level 6 Professional Diploma, can I use MCIPS after my name?

If you have completed or been exempt from the above qualifications and can evidence three years' experience in the procurement and supply profession, you are eligible to upgrade to MCIPS. Please go to cips.org/upgradeMCIPS for guidance.

Can I attend the CIPS Graduation Ceremony?

Yes, you must upgrade to MCIPS and keep your membership up to date to attend the ceremony. Invitations will be sent to everyone eligible to attend. Full details about the ceremony are at cips.org/events

Go to the Student Zone for exam support.

If you haven't achieved the results you were hoping for then help is at hand. In cips.org/learn/student-zone you will find lots of helpful resources for the qualification you are studying towards. This includes links to relevant CIPS knowledge, Exam Guides, Sample Papers and Exam Marker Reports. If you are studying through a CIPS accredited study centre, talk to your tutor as your study centre may be offering revision sessions.

Disappointing results; what can I do?

For each exam you will be sent a Performance Report on each of the learning outcomes. This will help you to identify which learning outcomes you need to build your knowledge. If you would like to apply for a review of your paper you must do so within 7 days of the results release date and this is only available for Constructed Response (CR) exams. Complete the Review Request Form available at cips.org/learn/student-zone/policies-and-procedures

The form should then be sent together with the appropriate fee to the Assessment Team by email assessment.team@cips.org. Further details of the appeal policy can be found at: cips.org/learn/student-zone/policies-and-procedures

Rebooking your exams.

The best way to book and pay for exams is online. With six exam series each year, you can get qualified sooner cips.org/MyCIPS
