II. About Phiona:

I am an attorney working with Mirembe & Co. Advocates as its founder and managing partner. My areas of specialization are land transactions, corporate and commercial law, corporate secretarial practice, arbitration and litigation. I also have commendable experience in the areas of banking and insolvency, focusing primarily on debt recovery and securities.

My land law practice encompasses property rights and registration, land use and regulation, ownership, co-ownership and termination, acquisition and disposal, mortgages and securities, leases and licenses, transfer and transmission, possession, easements, covenants, trusts and hereditaments, planning and infrastructure, housing and tenant rights, investment and taxation, as well as resulting arbitration and or litigation.

My debt recovery practice encompasses investigation, debt restructuring and rescheduling, asset-tracing and recovery and litigation. I also advise creditors such as banks and other financial institutions as well as individual and other corporate debtors.

I'm also passionate about information technology. I work with tech hubs; advising on legalities and building digital solutions for the legal profession.
